Did any of the Bakersfield writing spots in our guide surprise you yesterday?

Some of them are truly inspiring spaces to meet the muse.

Maybe it was the secret outdoor gazebo in one of our local coffee shops. Or the private tech hub behind that coworking space's trick door.

Even if you're just looking for a simple space with free wifi and a good cup of coffee—you'll find your new favorite place to write inside the guide. So be sure to check it out!

Pick it up here if you haven't already, and try one or two of the spaces this week.

Tomorrow we'll pop into your inbox with the first quick tour of what you need to know about Writers of Kern and how to make the most of this writing gem you found in your Bakersfield backyard.

You'll never guess the year we got started! That answer tomorrow.
